

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Manchester, UK. 6th May 2010

Press Release Summary

Entries are now open for Hit the North 2

Main body text

The Hit The North Team write...

Hit the North is back on July 17th.

Entries are now open and places will be limited. All three previous events have sold out in a matter of days, so you need to get yourselves and your team mates organised and get your entry in!

The entry fee will be £33.33 per person and it is up to you whether you register as a solo, pair or team of 3.

For that you get...

An 8 hour lap based event on a completely new 6-ish mile course on mixed terrain including some bits that would perhaps be better ridden on a mountain bike and some bits that will probably be faster on a cyclocross bike... Oh, and there will be some carrying sections.

Free camping on Saturday 17th. Additional camping is available on Friday 16th July for a fee of £3 per person payable directly to the campsite on arrival.

The usual awesome catering.

Trade stands.

A beer tent with live band and DJ for the after event party.

Electronic timing with a free access site wide wireless network so you can keep tabs on your performance in real time via a phone, pda or laptop.

Toilets and showers (that work).

The usual relaxed atmosphere that HtN seems to create.

So why not sign up?.. It won't kill you.

All proceeds will as usual be donated to local charities and we are being supported by the amazing generosity of JMC IT, Cloversoul Jewellery, Pro-Lite and Ragley Bikes.
